Ranking and Wild Cards

The official FIR ranking of July 1st 2016 applies to entries and seedings:

<http://fir.tournamentsoftware.com/rankings.aspx>

If a player registers in Men A - Elite, the player automatically applies for a wild card. If he or she wants to improve chances of getting one, he or she can write the tournament director and World Tour Officer with reasoning why it should be granted to him or her. One wild card per every eight players in a draw is issued. 2/3 of the wild cards issued by the tournament organizer, 1/3 by the FIR.

Entry fees

Included in the entry fee is a players dinner on Saturday evening, all balls and courts. All national teams and double pairs are guaranteed at least three matches.

Elite teams: 150€ or 1.125 DKK

Senior/Veteran teams and amateur teams: 120€ or 900 DKK

Junior Teams: 75€ or 565 DKK

There will be material prizes from our sponsors in all categories.

Rules

The official rules of the FIR applies: <http://racketlon.net/content/fir-rules-racketlon>

Travelling

Flights

For foreign players flying to Denmark, Copenhagen Airport, Kastrup is recommended. It is also possible to fly to the smaller airport of Malmö Sturup and take drive across the bridge to Copenhagen by car or train.

Shuttle service

Shuttle service will be available from Birkerød station to the venue and to/from the tournament hotel(s).

To get to Birkerød station from the airport:

1) Take a regional train to Copenhagen Central station and from there the S-train, line A to Birkerød.

or 2) Take the metro to Nørreport station and from there the S-train, line A to Birkerød.

Use www.rejseplanen.dk to plan the trip (also available in both English and German).

Car

For players travelling by car from the North, it is easiest to use the ferry from Helsingborg to Helsingør and drive South to Birkerød. The bridge across Øresund is also an option.

Players travelling by car from the South can drive all the way from South Jutland across the bridges to the main island. There are also ferries from Rostock to Gedser and Puttgarten to Rødby to get directly to the main island.

Free parking is available on site.
